FPCC Field Trips for October

FPCC Field Trips for October

Four fall opportunities to consider...

Tuesday, 10/7/14- Wednesday, 10/8/14

Read carefully! There will be a blood moon eclipse in the early morning hours of Wednesday. After FPCC Print Night on Tuesday, we will drive to Goldendale. Goldendale Observatory will open from midnight to 7 am for eclipse viewing. Observatory website here:

<http://www.goldendaleobservatory.com/special-events.html>

Meanwhile, nearby accommodations are available at the Quality Inn & Suites for $90+ tax- if you book your room through the hotel website, booking.com or priceline. Hotel website:

<http://www.choicehotels.com/ires/en-US/html/Availability#rsm-rate-RACK>

Please note there are smoking and non-smoking rooms; the non-smoking rooms have never been smoked in. Hotel is open 24 hours. Hint: some rooms have mountain views.

Thanks to Rosanne for suggesting the Blood Moon viewing in Goldendale.

Thursday, 10/9/14

Mount Angel Abbey &/or Abiqua Falls –both near Silverton

Mount Angel Abbey offers: beautifully landscaped grounds, a modern library designed by architect Alvar Aalto, etc. Check out Bing/Google images for library photos. (Hint-FPCC folks who enjoyed the Chapel of St. Ignatius when we visited Seattle in March should enjoy this.) Walking tour map here:

<https://www.mountangelabbey.org/walking-tour/>

Abiqua Falls requires a difficult hike that can be slippery and steep, but the 92-foot plunging waterfall is very picturesque. See Bing/Google images for inspiration. Site below offers more:

Wednesday through Sunday, October 15-19: ROAD TRIP*

Those who responded on possible dates for San Juan Islands trip in October chose dates above. Our lodging will be at: Friday Harbor Suites

Check-In: 4 pm*; Check-Out: 11 am

Amenities: 100% smoke-free, free parking, free shuttle around town (available from 7:30 am to 9:30 pm), free Wi-Fi and free breakfast.

You must call their toll-free number at: 800/752-5752 to book your room. Be sure to mention that you are with FILM PACK CAMERA CLUB.

Manager has offered a rate of $130* plus tax for a King or One-Queen Suites. If you're interested in sharing a room, a Double Queen Suite is available for $153. This would have a queen bed in the bedroom and a queen bed in the living area. Pet suites are available, too!

Take notice: A deposit for the first night & tax is required. Your deposit is refundable if you cancel by 4 pm seven days prior to arrival.

See hotel website for more:

<http://www.fridayharborsuites.com/suites/rooms.aspx>

*A large group of 20 or 40 leaves the day of our arrival. Call that day if you are interested in checking in early. Otherwise, FHS has a Luggage Room that is locked and secured.

Again, please note that these aren't bargain prices. With our trip to Seattle in March, we lucked out and got a great deal at Talaris Conference Center. The same management company runs Friday Harbor House. They would not budge on their room rates which start at $169 and up-even in mid-October.

Wednesday 10/22/14 or Thursday 10/23/14

You choose! Let's wander through the Willamette Valley vineyards for fall color and light. Morning mist might require an early, early departure. For lunch, we could treat ourselves to lunch at Nick's in McMinnville, as many folks have previously urged.

If you want to go, please sign up on meeting night or by email. Times will be determined prior to actual event.

Thank you,

Tammy Campbell
